KIMBALL'S KRONICLE

President's Day

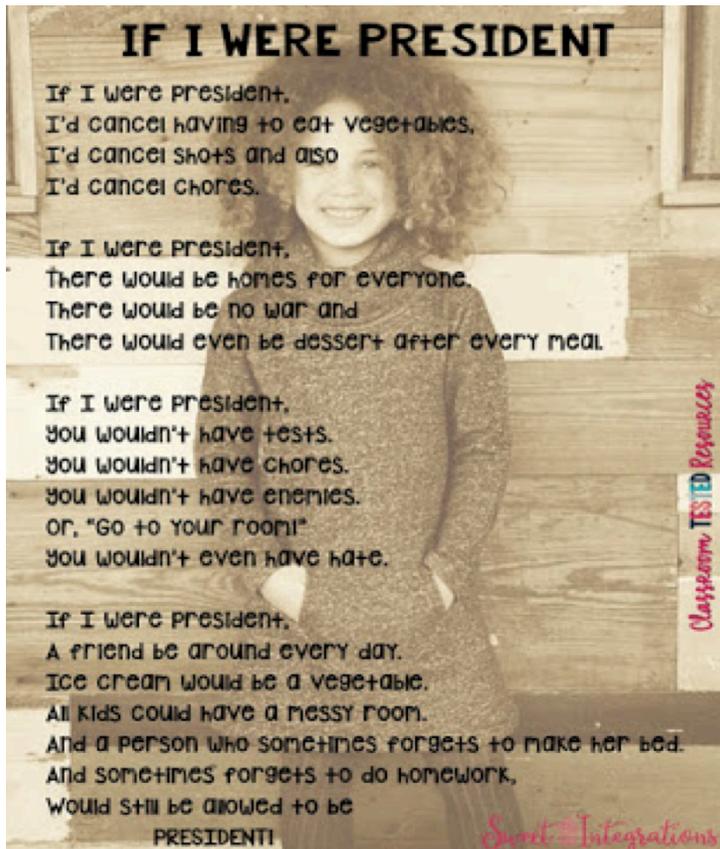

On the third Monday in February
We take time to show our gratitude
To those that have held the office of President
With values, vision and aptitude

Our Presidents have led the country
Through wars, poverty and strife
Our Presidents have shown great strength
While protecting our American way of life

From 1789 until the present time
The role of the President has been rough However, we're grateful to the leaders that have Continued to make our country tough

So on Presidents' Day we celebrate our leaders
Those who've protected, guided and been true
To the ideals of our great nation
That show love for our Red, White and Blue!

Robin Zelaya

When you are ready to accept that you already have everything you need,
When the feeling of appreciation is more profound and lasting,
When the little things matter,
you know how to love life.

Real love is not based on romance, candle light dinner, and walks along the beach. It is based on respect, compromise, care and trust.

“The beauty of a woman is not in the clothes she wears, the figure that she carries, or the way she combs her hair. The beauty of a woman is seen in her eyes, because that is the doorway to her heart, the place where love resides. True beauty in a woman is reflected in her soul. It's the caring that she lovingly gives, the passion that she shows and the beauty of a woman only grows with passing years.”

Audrey Hepburn

If we feel inwardly strong,
We will have no need or desire to speak ill of others.”

Sri Chinmoy

The Lighter Side Laugh Out Loud Cont'd

1. My spouse says I have 2 faults. I don't listen and...something else.
2. Never laugh at your spouse's choices. You are one of them.
3. "Dammit I'm mad" spelled backwards is "Dammit I'm mad". So is "Madam I am Adam."
4. One minute you're young and fun. The next, you're turning down the car stereo to see better.
5. I'd grow my own food if only I could find bacon seeds.
6. Losing weight doesn't seem to be working for me, so from now I'm going to concentrate on getting taller.
7. Day 12 without chocolate... lost hearing in my left eye.
8. Some people are like clouds, once they disappear it's a beautiful day.
9. Some people you're glad to see coming; some people you're glad to see going.
10. My body is a temple, ancient and crumbling, perhaps cursed or haunted.
11. Common sense is not a gift. It's a punishment because you have to deal with everyone who doesn't have it.
12. PLEASE KEEP YOUR DISTANCE. Nothing to do with virus. I'm just a grouch.
13. I came. I saw. I forgot what I was doing. Retraced my steps. Got lost. Now I have no idea why or where I was going.

A loud pounding on the door awakened a man and his wife at 3:00 am. The man gets up and goes to the door where a drunken stranger, standing in the pouring rain, is asking for a push. "Not a chance," says the husband, "it is 3:00 in the morning!" He slams the door and returns to bed. "Who was that?" asked his wife. "Just some drunk guy asking for a push," he answers. "Did you help him? She asks. "No, I did not, it's 3 am in the morning and it's bloody pouring rain out there!" "Well, you have a short memory," says his wife. "Can't you remember about three months ago when our car broke down, and those two guys helped us? I think you should help him, and you should be ashamed of yourself! God loves drunk people too, you know." The man does as he is told, gets dressed, and goes out into the pounding rain. He calls out into the dark, "Hello, are you still there?" "Yes," comes back the answer. "Do you still need a push?" calls out the husband. "Yes, please!" comes the reply from the dark. "Where are you?" asks the husband. I love this part...."Over here on the swing!" replied the drunk.

Three sisters age 92, 94 and 96 live in a house together. One night the 96 year old draws a bath, puts her foot in and pauses. She yells down the stairs, "Was I getting in or out of the bath?" The 94 year old yells back, "I don't know, I'll come up and see." She starts up the stairs and pauses, then she yells, "Was I going up the stairs or coming down?" The 92 year old was sitting at the kitchen table having tea listening to her sisters. She shakes her head and says, "I sure hope I never get that forgetful." She knocks on wood for good measure. She then yells, "I'll come up and help both of you as soon as I see who's at the door."

I got myself a senior's GPS. Not only does it tell me how to get to my destination, it tells me why I wanted to get there!

My doctor gave me a list of foods that I should only be eating. I asked, "If I eat only this, will I live longer?" He said, "No, but it will seem like it!"

My body's absorbed so much sanitizer that when I use the restroom, it cleans the toilet.

I want to lose weight, but I don't want to get caught up in one of those eat right and exercise scams.

What do you get when you cross a bear and a mountain lion?

Killed. You get killed.

My wife asked me if I knew what her favorite flower was.

Apparently "Gold Medal All Purpose" was not the correct response.

The highest compliment my clients can give me is the referral of their friends, family & business partners.
